Social Side of Life

DANCE AT THE "YOUNG".

On Monday evening, April 24th, the management of the Alexander Young Hotel will give a dance in the roof garden pavilion to the hotel guests, the society ladies and gentlemen of Honolulu, the officers of the Army and Navy stationed in Honolulu with their ladies and the officers of passenger steamers in port.

During the evening there will be an opportunity to meet and welcome the hotel's new manager, Mr. N. W. Gray and Mrs. Gray, and also to say a kindly good-bye to the retiring manager, Mr. H. W. Lake and Mrs. Lake.

The dance will be given under the patronage of the following ladies, viz: Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Mrs. J. S. McGrew, Mrs. A. Fuller, Mrs. Henry Ware Lyon, Mrs. Fred. W. Macfarlane, Mrs. M. M. Scott, Mrs. Charles B. Cooper, Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mrs. Samuel Parker, Mrs. John McClellan and Mrs. Alexander Young.

Easter Sunday, the climax of the joy-day penance will be hailed with joy by sinners and penitents alike. The Easter bonnet is now a thing of the past and we bid the unwary one who sports a new hat on Easter Sunday, for it augurs the person unfashionable, so we are told.

What everybody says is needed in Honolulu is a country club—and why cannot we have it? If some energetic persons would only bestir themselves and get such public spirited men interested as the Hon. S. M. Damon, Mr. James Castle, Mr. Charles Cooke, Judge Dole and Governor Carter, and hosts of others whom we could mention, the thing would be done. The joy of driving to Moanalua, for instance, or any of the beautiful places outside the town which are most suitable could never be overestimated. The Henry Cooper place in Manoa Valley would make a very attractive clubhouse. Every town of any importance has its country club, so why need we be so far behind the times?

The Campbell-Parker villa at Waikiki was thrown open to thirty guests on Thursday by the hospitable mistress, who had bidden them to luncheon to meet Mrs. Shipman of Hilo, who has been so much entertained since her arrival in Honolulu. A quiet club played throughout the luncheon, which was most elaborate. Flowers were lavishly used in the decorative scheme and a delightful time enjoyed. Among those present were Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Henry Macfarlane, Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, Mrs. Bertman, Miss Paris, Mrs. John Ena, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Low, Mrs. Dreier, Mrs. Hana, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Beckley, Mrs. Cunha, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Cooney and Mrs. Holt.

On Saturday Mrs. John Ena entertained for Mrs. Shipman at luncheon and her guests were Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Dreier, Mrs. Cunha, Mrs. Parker, Campbell, Mrs. Beckley and Mrs. Cooney.

A charming picnic lunch was given by Mr. "Boonie" Monsarrat at Koko Head, on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., and Miss Robinson.

On Wednesday Mrs. Cunha gave a luncheon for Mrs. Shipman at the Moana Hotel. Mrs. Cunha always entertains charmingly and the luncheon on Wednesday last was particularly enjoyable. Among those present were Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. Low, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Ena, Mrs. Dreier, Mrs. Paris, Mrs. Beckley and Mrs. Campbell-Parker.

Considerable interest is centered upon the Taft party and especially in Miss Alice Roosevelt, who has surrendered her heart and promised her hand, and who now wears upon her third left finger the jeweled token of her engagement. The successful woman is the eloquent "Toy Orator of the Wabash," Senator Albert J. Beveridge, of Indiana, and the formal announcement of the betrothal will be made in Easter. The news has just come to me from Washington, whence I also learn that President Roosevelt is more than pleased, and has given the happy pair his paternal benediction. I have noticed for some months past a most agreeable change in the department of the fair Princess Alice. She has grown more womanly, more dignified and altogether more lovable. She has put away her frivolity while still retaining much of her charm of unconventionality, and the reason is now clear. She is in love. Senator Beveridge is a widower of forty-two. His first wife was Miss Katherine Langsdale, of Greencastle, Ind., who died in 1900. The Senator is self-made. He was a plowboy at twelve, a railroad laborer at fourteen, a logger and teamster at fifteen. Then he attended high school at Sullivan, Ill.; later he read law in the office of Senator McDonald, and after being admitted to the bar, became associated with the law firm of McDonald & Butler, with which he remained until beginning practice for himself. As a Republican campaign speaker he has for years been prominent.

The above item from Town Topics has been formally denied by Mrs. Roosevelt's social secretary, but the gossips are still busy.

Mr. John H. Bliss entertained at dinner on Sunday evening at the Moana Hotel for Mr. and Mrs. Davis Rice, Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Miss Jessie Kaufman, Miss Nannie Winston, ex-Governor Cleghorn and Mr. MacSweny.

Prince and Princess Kawanakoa are giving a picnic tomorrow, Easter Sunday, in honor of their sister, Miss Alice Campbell and Miss Helen Robinson. The Boyd place in Manoa Valley will be the objective point.

Mrs. Mary Gunn's entertainment on Saturday evening last brought out an immense audience who were highly entertained from start to finish by the cleverness of her pupils. The Highland Fling which was danced by Helen Carter, a tiny thing of six years, was perfectly done and the house rose en masse to show their appreciation of the cleverest bit of dancing that has been done in the classes as yet. The wildest cheers were given and such enthusiasm reigned that the dear little girl, who was dressed in a real Highland costume from Scotland, danced to an encore as cleverly as before. Graciously Esther Waller in her living pictures was highly appreciated and Reynold McGrew as a Paris Boulevardier was as good as a professional. He sang most sweetly, and Mrs. Walter Hoffmann, who trained him, said: "You only had to tell him once what to do, for he caught the idea immediately." Thelma Murphy sang twice and won generous applause. She looked very pretty and acted with great spirit.

The King's Guards created much favorable comment and the ballet with the little tots in pink proved most amusing. "A Bit of Blarney," by Mrs. F. H. Humphris, was most gracefully acted, and she looked extremely lovely in an Irish costume with her long hair floating in the breeze. The pretty girls who danced in this made a picture in the ballet skirts. The Puritan Quadrille was very quaint and the little girls and boys were much admired. One of the best hits of the evening was the Pickaninies Chorus. Their voices blended harmoniously and they looked the part to perfection.

The "Dance of Nations" was very picturesque and each girl dressed delightfully. Miss Hazel Buckland's buck and wing dance was much applauded. She danced with great abandon and never seemed to get tired. She reflected great credit upon Mrs. Gunn. The boxes were filled as well as the loges. In the stage box were Mr. and Mrs. Richards Ivers, Mr. and Mrs. Gerit Wilder, Miss Helen Macfarlane and

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

Mrs. J. H. Farmer Mrs. Ella Lee

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

It is any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands A Woman's Ills.

Mr. Richard Wright. The opposite box was taken by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering and their guests were Dr. and Mrs. H. Humphris, Miss Robinson, Mr. David Anderson and Mr. Colburn. Governor and Mrs. Carter occupied a loge and Mrs. Lockwood and Mr. Strong were among the prettiest of the Puritan maidens.

The programs, so artistically done by Mr. Gurrey, were made quite a profitable feature of the occasion. The four pretty program sellers had no difficulty in disposing of their wares. At the rehearsal Miss Hazel Buckland said to Mrs. Gunn, "I mean to dance as well as I can in order to take your place when you are old," and there is not the slightest doubt but she will become a beautiful dancer.

The ushers were chosen for their good looks and were very pretty flitting down the aisle with important airs. They did their work most cleverly, much better than the usual ushers, as nearly everybody said. Miss Alice Brown, the pianist, was a great help to Mrs. Gunn, and her good work told on Saturday.

To the regret of everyone, Mrs. Gunn did not appear in her graceful dances, but when we consider how hard she has labored for her pupils it can readily be understood that it would have been cruelty to have insisted upon it.

Mrs. Gunn expects to go to San Francisco to visit her daughter and to take a well-earned vacation.

Mrs. Charles Glen Collins, formerly Nathalie Schenck, one of the most popular and attractive New York society girls of two seasons ago, is soon to return here from Paris to open either a millinery or a dressmaking establishment, according to advices received last night by some of her friends in this city. Her husband, a retired British army officer, being bankrupt, Mrs. Collins is determined, it is said, to earn her own living, thus following the example of several titled women in London who have gone into business after suffering financial reverses, says the New York American.

Mrs. Collins' friends here have also heard that a daughter has been born to the unhappy wife in Paris. As soon as she has regained her health she is expected to sail for her native land to begin the brave task of maintaining herself and her child.

A woman of taste, culture and cleverness, Mrs. Collins, her friends say, should have no difficulty in making her contemplated venture a success. Her unhappy marriage has evoked great sympathy everywhere, but no place more than in New York, where she passed her girlhood days.

It was only about a year ago that Nathalie Schenck, belle of Newport society, and Lieutenant Charles Glen Collins, of the Cameron Highlanders, British army, were wed. He was supposed to have an income of more than $10,000 a year.

Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham— "I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me."

Three years ago I had inflammation of the ovaries and uterus on my mind. I was under the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would be an invalid the rest of my life. I had given up in despair, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and today I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine.

Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham— "I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had."

"For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 pounds to 122 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record for actual cures of female ills as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands A Woman's Ills.

600 a year. A few months after the marriage the young bride learned that her husband's income was but $15 a month. Her own fortune was not large, but great inroads were made in what there was of it. Less than half a year after the wedding it was announced that Lieutenant Collins was a bankrupt and had resigned his commission in the army.

Lieutenant Collins had always been known as "Captain" C. Glen Collins, but the official publication of the resignation showed that he had no claim to that title.

Mrs. Collins has been living with her mother of late. Her husband will not accompany her to this country, her friends emphatically declare.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Scott, who are at the Moana Hotel, are very much admired. Mr. Scott spent twenty years of his life in Dageeling, where he made a specialty of painting Indian scenery. Almost any afternoon if the chance visitor should happen upon them at 4 o'clock, a most delicious cup of tea, real Dageeling tea, which the Scotts have sent out, will be offered there. It is an experience in Honolulu to taste such tea. Mr. Scott will exhibit some time in May. He has a studio on the fifth floor of the Alexander Young.

At the beautiful new home of the Levers on Thursday last the host and hostess entertained at dinner of Mr. Strong, father of Mrs. George Carter and his fiancée, Mrs. Lockwood. The table was a profusion of violets most artistically arranged, and the guests to meet the newly engaged couple were Governor and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wickham, and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wall.

Col. and Mrs. John McClellan were the host and hostess of a delightfully informal card party on Thursday evening at Camp McKinley. After the bridge, a delicious chafing dish supper was served. Dancing and music added to the pleasure of the evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. von Hamm, Dr. and Mrs. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes Jr., Mrs. Wesley Hamilton, Miss Nannie Winston, Miss Bertha Young, Miss Kathleen Cartwright and Dr. Yost.

A very charming dinner was given by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Cooke on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Lockwood and Mr. Strong. The table was charming with many yellow marguerites. Among the guests were Governor and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerit Wilder, Miss Grace Cooke and Dr. Baldwin.

M. and Mrs. McCandless, who have been stopping at the Alexander Young, have taken the Waterhouse place on Wylie street, vacated by the Lewis Browns, for a year.

A dinner was given at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Wednesday evening by Mrs. Lockwood and Mr. Strong in honor of Governor and Mrs. George Carter, the occasion being the 13th anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. F. M. Hatch entertained at luncheon on Thursday for Miss Hamm of New York.

The water carnival from its very novelty will attract a large audience tonight. Governor and Mrs. Carter have taken two blocks of seats and will have many guests, and Secretary of the Territory Atkinson has invited Dr. and Mrs. Humphris, Miss Robinson, Miss Cartwright, Miss Hartnagle and Dr. Yost to be his guests on that evening and there are many others who will come with large parties. Altogether it is sure to be worth seeing and it ought to be encouraged.

Commander Kossuth Niles of the U. S. S. Boston is one of the best-known Naval men. He has often been in Honolulu, and both Mr. and Mrs. Niles are great favorites here.

Miss Nellie Kitchen, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Edward Tenney, is suffering from rheumatism. This pretty young girl seems to have more than her share of illness, much to the regret of her friends, with whom she is very popular.

On Monday evening the Kanehameha girls presented "King Rene's Daughter," by Henry Smart, in a delightful manner.

"The Daughters of Hawaii" met at the Dillinghams on Monday evening and there was a very good program. One of the features of the evening was a paper read by Miss Anna Paris called "The Passing of the Kapu System." Miss Mabel Andrews and Mr. I. Dillingham sang beautifully and Miss Mabel Ena and Mr. Paris gave the audience a treat by their musical numbers. At the end "Hawaii Pono!" was sung.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham expects to visit her daughter in Japan in the near future.

Do not forget that the Art League offers prizes for original stories. Address Miss C. H. Uecker, Oahu College.

Miss Maud Kinney, who is now in New York, is expected to arrive in Honolulu in a short time. She has been studying music in Germany for a year or more.

Mrs. Lockwood was the motif of a luncheon at Mrs. F. M. Swany's on Tuesday. Among the guests were Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Hatch, Miss Kaufman, Miss Winston and Mrs. Blackman.

Judge Robinson, who has been so ill, is slowly improving.

The Engleside household was treated to a trolley drive on Monday evening. The Koko Head burial caves were visited and an informal supper served. The affair was arranged by Miss George Baldwin.

The second anniversary of Miss Johnson's sanitarium was celebrated last Sunday. Flowers and congratulatory notes were received in the greatest profusion during the day, and Miss Johnson must have been touched by such public acknowledgment of her noble services.

Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, who has been so ill at her Waikiki bungalow with influenza, is much better, although still confined to the house.

Mr. F. H. Humphris, who departed on the Korea for the round trip, will greet his old friend, Mr. Tom May, in San Francisco and will accompany him to the Islands. Mr. Humphris enjoys the sea trips hugely and often gratifies his favorite hobby by these unexpected journeys.

Dr. Arthur Knudsen is stopping at the Moana Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Paton are expected to arrive in Honolulu in a few months' time for a long stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis are spending a few days at beautiful Walele. Miss Nannie Winston will be among their guests over Sunday.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Lake is viewed with great regret, for they have both been very popular during their sojourn here. Mr. Lake does not expect to continue in the hotel business.

SOCIAL NOTES

MACKENZIE BUTCHART.

Hilo, Apr. 20.—Miss Nellie Mackenzie and Mr. Butchart were married at high noon Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Moir at Papaikou, by Rev. C. A. Shields. Immediately following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Butchart and a number of special friends were entertained at a sumptuous lunch at the Moir residence after which the bridal couple left, in a shower of rice, for the Volcano House. Mr. and Mrs. Butchart will reside in the cottage formerly occupied by Bookkeeper Metcalfe at Papaikou—Tribune.

The Examiner says: The engagement of Miss Ingarde Macfarlane of Honolulu and Major Potter of the same place is a delightful piece of news to the hundreds of friends of this sweet bride-to-be, who, during her several visits here, has made so many lasting friends. Numerous cablegrams have already been sent to her, wishing her the greatest possible happiness, and congratulating Major Potter on being the luckiest man on the islands.

The wedding will be celebrated at the bride's home in about eight months, and will be one of the most important events the society world of Honolulu has recently witnessed.

Miss Macfarlane is expected here shortly on her way to Europe, where she will spend several months selecting her trousseau. This will be an elaborate and costly one, so I was informed.

I know of several staunch friends of this lovely young woman who will entertain her as soon as she arrives here. They will try to persuade her to remain here for a few weeks, at least so that elaborate entertainments can be given her.

Major Potter has been one of the catches of Honolulu. He is extremely courteous in his manner, makes friends easily and retains them. He owns a beautiful mansion and is enormously rich. Miss Macfarlane is a sister of Harry Macfarlane, who married one of our sweetest and most beautiful society belles, Polly Dunn.

Mr. William Irwin and Mr. Claus

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer gave a dinner at the Moana Hotel on Thursday evening for Mr. A. O. Baker, Mr. Thos. Becknoeger and Mr. J. Reed Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sewall and their family have sailed from New York for Europe, where they will probably remain for several months. They will go at once to Switzerland, where they will be during the summer. Mr. Sewall will return after a few weeks.

Everything is in shape for the water carnival this evening and from the sale of seats a large audience is anticipated.

Mr. Derby is to be among Mr. Jack Atkinson's guests this evening.

The popular Hugh Rodman, Lieutenant Commander, U. S. N., is in charge of the gunboat El Cano in Chinese waters.

Harry G. Hamlet of the U. S. revenue cutter service will be married to Miss Frances Hastings of Port Townsend, Wash. Lieut. Hamlet is a son of Captain and Mrs. Hamlet of the U. S. R. C. Bear, and is a popular young officer.

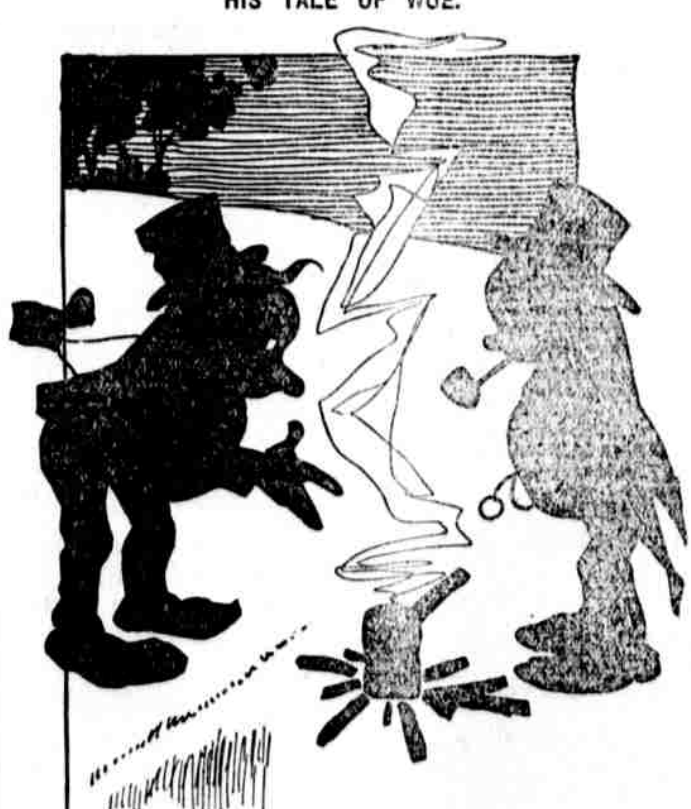

Lieut. and Mrs. Slattery have departed for the other islands for a few weeks' trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Holbrook, formerly Miss Lily Spreckels, are expected to return from their wedding journey on April 29, and will occupy apartments at the Marie Antoinette on Van Ness avenue. They have had a most delightful trip, having gone as far as the West Indies, thence to New York and to other places in the East.—Chronicle.

A delightful luncheon was given at the Catholic Church at Waikiki on Wednesday last for Father Valentin and Bishop Libert by their devoted parishioners, who thoroughly appreciate the high standards of these noble men.
